

PRESS RELEASE

World Famous Rose Bowl Flea Market

Each month, for over 40 years, the Pasadena Rose Bowl Stadium has been the gathering place of rare and unusual merchandise, including clothing, home furnishings, home and garden, home decorating, paintings, posters, vintage clothing, arts and crafts, as well as the very popular antiques and collectibles. It is the 2,000,000 items of interest, over 2500 vendors and approximately 15-20,000 buyers passing through the turnstiles that indeed make this California's largest flea market!

This event offers a unique opportunity to get away from the every day pressure and grind by enjoying the refreshing atmosphere and picturesque setting while enjoying some live entertainment in the Rose Bowl Court of Champions. You can relax in the shade under an umbrella in the food court while enjoying your favorite lunch. This is a great place to shop alongside some of Hollywood's most famous personalities. You never know whom you might bump into while finding your way down the busy aisles! Don't miss out on taking a look inside the famous stadium football field in the special "Birds Eye View" area where historic Rose Bowl and Super Bowl games have been played! You will also want to bring that special family heirloom to be appraised as there are free appraisals offered by experts in the field!

Come on out and enjoy some of the old fashioned fun at the Rose Bowl Flea Market held the 2nd Sunday of every month, from 9am-3pm at the World Famous Rose Bowl Stadium in Pasadena, California. With acres of free parking and VIP preferred parking close to the entrance, come find your treasure before anyone else with the special early bird admission starting at 5am.
